TRAINS ON THE G. H. & S. A. are

Again beginning to run on their old time, accumulated freights are being rushed to their destinations, the former employees are back on their jobs, and the strike is ended. Only six days in duration, it is one of the shortest in the history of the organization. The employees are returning to work upon the assurances of the company that all matters in dispute will be submitted to a joint committee for settlement.

No time was lost after the announcement that the strike was over. Even before that fact had been proclaimed at a conference of all the striking men at Central Labor hall, call boys were hurrying into the building notifying one

Mr. R. M. Hoover, of the El Paso Division, G. H. & S. A., said he would have his train on schedule from Houston.

"All passenger trains are on time now but No. 9," he said, "is now to leave Houston at 10:30 a. m. to work now to reach the freight through line. Hoover was manifestly gratified that the El Paso Division was now in the position of the transportation problems of the past week was in sight.

EL PASO SETTLEMENT.

Mr. Hoover gave out the following telegram from Houston, at 11:30:

"The following statement may be given to the public as the basis as indicating the basis reached with committees representing the four organizations. The El Paso Division fully recognized the injustice of many of the demands made, and feel keenly the emergency of the situation. It is the intention of the El Paso Division to order that the public, not only upon the lines immediately involved but upon connecting lines, be permitted to travel under the hitherto faithful employees who are not re-responsible for their actions in the service, they, after offering to submit all matters in issue to the board of arbitration and to accept its decision, have extended consultation with the board, have agreed to meet the joint committee of the four organizations for the purpose, if possible, of reaching an amicable adjustment of pending grievances, with the distinct agreement on the part of the joint committee that any matter not amicably adjusted will be immediately submitted to the board for final settlement, all employees who have temporarily withdrawn from the service will be immediately to their posts without prejudice to their standing in the service, and to remain until such settlement and adjustment is effected. It is believed that the public will appreciate the action of these communities in the matter and it is hoped that all questions will be speedily and
